

About INTEGRIS Cancer Institute of Oklahoma & ProCure Proton Treatment Center

Financing: All private financing secured

Equipment: FDA-approved proton therapy equipment by IBA

Design: PPTC design completed by Tsoi Kobus & Associates to fit IBA equipment
ICIO design completed by HKS

PPTC 58,000 sq. ft. with four treatment rooms
(one gantry, one incline beam and two fixed beam treatment rooms)

ICIO Diagnostic and Treatment Bldg—80,000 sq. ft.
External beam radiation therapy, brachytherapy, chemotherapy, MRI, CT, CT/PET, Ultrasound, Digital X-Ray technology along with lab diagnostic and patient support services

ICIO Medical Office Bldg—55,000 sq. ft.
Dedicated medical oncology clinic and multidisciplinary cancer clinics

Construction: OPPTC—24 months (Open July 2009)

ICIO—18 months (Open Fall 2009)

Clinical Partner: Radiation Oncology Associates
Radiology Medical Associates

Hospital Affiliate: INTEGRIS Health

Ancillary Affiliate: INTEGRIS Cancer Institute of Oklahoma

Training: Physicians and staff will be trained at ProCure's Training and Development Center
Patient Support Services have been trained in the City of Hope Survivorship Program

Treatment: Proton treatment will begin Summer 2009

Photon treatment will begin Fall 2009

Economic Impact: PPTC—75 employment opportunities

ICIO—75 employment opportunities

For More Information Public: Integrisok.com
Procure.com